PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 08/01/2024.

On July 8, 2024, an officer with the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane, Washington, reviewed a copy of the conditions of supervision with Mr. Khalid, as outlined in the judgement and sentence. He signed a copy acknowledging the requirements.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

2 Special Condition #1: You must reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period up to 180 days at the direction of the supervising officer. Your participation in the programs offered by the RRC is limited to employment, education, treatment, and religious services at the direction of the supervising officer. The defendant shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility.

Supporting Evidence: Taqiuddin Ibn Khalid has allegedly violated special condition number 1 since August 14, 2024, by failing to abide by the rules and requirements of the residential reentry center (RRC).

On August 9, 2024, the offender commenced his public law placement at the RRC as arranged by the U.S. Probation Office, in response to his illicit drug use.

Since his arrival, Mr. Khalid has received 11 behavioral notes, four of which the offender was sanctioned for; the first behavioral note was issued on August 14, 2024, just 5 days after his arrival.

On August 18, 2024, the offender's assigned RRC case manager contacted this officer and advised that Mr. Khalid had received three behavioral notes in 3 days. The problematic behavior outlined included transgressions of the facility's regulations, to include possession of pornography, as well as behavior that "consistently exhibited a pattern of rude, vulgar and disrespectful behavior."

The undersigned subsequently contacted the offender and explained that his compliance with the rules and regulations of the facility is required by the conditions of his federal supervision, and failure to comply would be considered a violation of those conditions. Mr. Khalid insisted that he understood and committed to compliance.

Approximately 1 month later, on September 17, 2024, the assigned probation officer was again contacted by RRC staff. According to the information received, Mr. Khalid was found in possession of an electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card, which should have been returned to staff upon returning to the facility. When confronted about that issue, the offender reportedly had an attitude with his case manager; it should be noted that this was the second time this issue had been discussed with the Mr. Khalid.

Once again, on September 18, 2024, this officer contacted the offender. In addition to discussing his behavior at the RRC, this officer raised questions about why he would have an EBT card if he was fully employed and residing at the RRC, where they are not currently collecting subsistence from residents.

On October 13, 2024, this officer received notification that Mr. Khalid was "still having difficulties following basic instructions."

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
